A well known local family are the latest to step forward and support the Credit Union CU Plex. Bill and Carol Volk have committed to sponsoring the dance floor in the Dekker Centre for the Performing Arts.

“We are very excited that this project is so close to becoming a reality,” said Bill Volk. “We wanted to show our support for the new complex because our daughter danced in the Battlefords for over 10 years and we understand the need for improved facilities.”

In addition to the Dekker Centre for the Performing Arts, The Battlefords will soon be home to a new Curling Rink, Fieldhouse and Aquatic Centre. The fundraising committee is made up of several individuals who continue to canvass.
